

Drunkenness and Disorderly Conduct.

1888, art. 27, sec. 68. 1860, art. 30, sec. 42 1892, ch. 672. 1902, ch. 215.
1904, ch. 118.

95. Every person who shall be found drunk, or acting in a disorderly manner, to the disturbance of the public peace, upon any public street or highway, in any city, town or county in this State, or at any place of public worship or public resort or amusement in any city, town or county of this State, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not less than one dollar and not more than twenty-five dollars and costs of prosecution; and when said fine and costs are not paid, the party so convicted shall be committed to the county jail for a term not exceeding thirty days or until discharged in due course of law. The justice of the peace for the respective counties of this State shall have concurrent jurisdiction over such offense with the circuit court for their respective counties; and justices of the peace selected to sit at the respective station houses in the city of Baltimore shall have concurrent jurisdiction over such offense with the criminal court of Baltimore city. This section not to apply to Frederick county; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect any prosecution for violation of the existing laws of this State or for offenses against the same committed before March 18, 1904.

1890, ch. 523, sec. 68A.

96. Any person who shall keep a disorderly house shall on conviction thereof be subject to a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, or to imprisonment in jail for not less than ten days nor more than six months, or to both fine and imprisonment.

Beard v. State, 74 Md. 131.

Duelling.
